

November 8, 2011 General Election – Explanation of discrepancies.

Voters credited = 20,476

Ballots Counted = 20,473

Difference between the two is 3. This is the number of empty envelopes. So we credited the voter with voting but when we opened the envelope it was empty and there is no way to determine which voter sent in a empty envelope.